Do you feel a call to missions or ministry? Do you want to be trained and disciplined to be sent out into the mission field? Our School of Missions is designed to equip young people through intense training and Bible School to prepare you for what God has called you to do. During these 11 months you will learn what it means to be a true follower of Christ as you and 75+ fellow classmates from all over the Americas go through classes, ministry, missions, and hands-on activities to prepare you.
